WATA encourages you to 'Try Transit' during annual celebration Sept. 16-21, 2019

WILLIAMSBURG, Virginia (Sept. 11, 2019) Williamsburg Area Transit Authority (WATA) is partnering with the Virginia Department of Rail and Public Transportation (DRPT) and transportation agencies across the state and nation to celebrate Try Transit Week from September 16-21, 2019.

This event encourages people to discover alternatives for their commute to improve traffic congestion, alleviate environmental impacts and save money, while gaining more time to read, work, text, or listen to music as they travel.

As part of Try Transit Week, WATA encourages people to try public transportation for commuting, shopping, sight-seeing and other activities in region serviced by WATA buses and the Williamsburg Trolley. Go to www.trytransitweek.com to pledge to try transit, show your support for public transportation and possibly win a free 30-day pass for WATA services.

About Williamsburg Area Transit Authority (WATA)
